PROMISED LAND! A CONCERT! CELEBRATE!

Our own Promised Land, a wonderful collection of men who love to sing Gospel songs, will be giving a concert at Edwards on February 19th at 5:30 in the sanctuary.

Week after week, these guys rehearse together - and occasionally they sing for us in worship. This is their opportunity to sing the songs you love to hear and to have fun doing it. It is our opportunity to support this wonderful ministry that has grown up in our midst, and to have fun doing it.

Promised Land is hoping to fill the sanctuary with toe-tapping folks who love to listen to good Gospel music. BRING A FRIEND! BETTER YET - BRING TWO FRIENDS! A free-will offering will be taken to help raise money for much-needed new carpeting. Bring a dish to share, and we'll all sit down to a potluck afterwards!

SHROVE/FAT TUESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER

As a kick-off into our Lenten celebration this year, the Membership Board is sponsoring a Pancake Supper on Shrove/Fat/Mardi Gras Tuesday, February 28, in Baxter Hall.

Historically, Shrove Tuesday was a day of celebration as well as penitence, because it's the last day before Lent. And since Lent is a time for giving up things, Shrove Tuesday was the last day to indulge and use up those pantry items that could not be eaten during Lent. Thus, the pancake became a symbol of those ancient celebrations, using up the eggs, fats, milk and flour in order to not be wasteful.

Pancakes and breakfast meats will be served between 6:00 and 6:45 p.m. A free-will offering will be accepted to help defray the cost of the meal. Come join the family fun night afterwards & music, games, contests, etc & our own Mardi Gras celebration & until about 8:30. Please sign up on the tear-off sheet on Sunday morning, or phone the church office (359-0331) to make reservations, so that we can plan for how many to serve. Hope to see YOU there!

From Our Pastor s Desk. . . .

February is best known for Valentine s Day - one of the few holidays NOT shared by the church! The focus on romantic love during this month provides us, in the church, a wonderful opportunity to reflect a bit on the meaning of love in the Christian tradition.

In his farewell conversations with his disciples, remembered in the Gospel of John, Jesus says I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have love you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (Jn 13:34-35)

Later Jesus says, again, This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one s life for one s friends. (Jn 15:12-13)

We believe that God IS love. We trust that, no matter what the circumstances of our lives, we walk in the light of Gods love for all the world. We are challenged to share Gods love with the world - with neighbors and strangers.

There is that wonderful camp song from the 1940's - They Will Know We Are Christians By Our Love - which shaped my understanding of faith. There is the favorite old hymn - Love Divine, All Loves Excelling . I Love to Tell the Story reminds us of our love that is a response to the love of Jesus. And, of course, there is the classic children s song - Jesus loves me, this I know

Love is the cornerstone of our faith - love received and love shared with the world. But, in spite of the fact that the words are the same, we - as Christians - mean something different than the rest of the world.

Jesus was not talking about love as a FEELING - as in Valentine s Day. Jesus was talking about love as an ACTION, love as a WAY OF LIFE, love as a DECISION we make to tend to others as carefully as we tend to ourselves - in spite of the fact that they may be very different from us.

I don t think Jesus ever thought we would like our neighbors (at least not all of them and not all the time!). In spite of that, he commands us to love them. Jesus asks us to make their children as important as our own. Jesus asks us to remember that our lives are no more important than our neighbor s across the street or on the other side of the world. Jesus knew that this is not easy. He knew that we would not do such a difficult thing perfectly. But love is so important that Jesus asks us to try to do it anyway. And in the midst of our efforts, he promises to be with us - even to the end of the age. Don t miss the journey or the companions!

Coming in March - Lent!

Lent is just around the corner - Ash Wednesday is March 1st this year (mark your calendar NOW!). We will gather each Wednesday in Lent for a simple supper and some worship/study time together to help us all mark the journey from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday. We will gather from 5:30 to 6:15 for a simple soup supper, and our worship time will be from 6:15 - 7:00 each week.

Becky David, a recent graduate of Loyola University's Master of Divinity program, Manager of the Spiritual Care Department at Genesis Hospital, and a new member here at Edwards has graciously agreed to lead a time of worship and reflection, using a book called Sabbath, written by Wayne Muller, as the foundational resource. If you would like to order a copy of the book for your own reading through Lent, please sign up on the Sunday morning tear-off sheet, or call the church office. Your life will grow in fullness and grace as you make space for God on Wednesday evenings in Lent. Join us!

The Youth (with a few adults) Taizé Ensemble begins again! Rehearsals: Short meeting after church Sunday, Feb. 5th to receive the music, and rehearsal after church on Sunday, Feb. 19th. Play for the Ash Wednesday service, March 1st. This will be a lovely way to begin the Lenten season, and all young players are urged to contact Jean at 359-0331, ext. 13. Michelle Hukvari will again lead this group. Join us for this wonderful expression of music on Ash Wednesday.

Annual Meeting Recap

This year's Annual Meeting was a celebration of a great year. Outgoing Moderator, Tim Mandell, provided leadership and vision as we reviewed some of the successes of 2005:

- " Twenty-seven new members
- " Monthly Habitat Work Days
- " Foods Resources Bank Project
- " Increase in Food Pantry Giving
- " Beginning the year with a $22,000 projected deficit and ending the year breaking even
- " Youth Mission Project
- " Caregiver Coordinator position reinstated
- " CareNet Program begun
- " A new Confirmation/Youth Fellowship Program
- " Wednesday night programming for children and parents

2005 was, indeed, a wonderful year!

As a congregation, we adopted the budget for 2006 which was proposed by the Church Council, which contains some real challenges for us all. It projects a $14,000 deficit, if giving does not increase to meet the needs. Spending has increased in a variety of places, mostly in mission and utilities. The budget also includes a 3% increase in salaries for our staff. Again, this year, it will take all of us working together to make this budget work. We did it in 2005, let's do it again in 2006!

Stewardship Reflections

There is both GREAT news and a real challenge in front of us this year. The GREAT news is that in 2005, in addition to what we expected to receive in giving, we made up a $22,000 projected deficit AND received $14,600 extra to almost pay off the roof loan! The remaining $400 debt was retired at the Annual Meeting, as gourmet pies and desserts (all made by our Outgoing Moderator, Tim Mandell) were auctioned!

The challenge before us is another projected deficit (this year only about $14,000). We will make that up this year in the same way we did last year - as each of us reach deeply into our hearts, souls, and checkbooks to give more generously than we thought we were going to give. This could happen in a variety of creative and fun ways:

- " Match the amount that you spend each month on fast food, and donate it to Edwards.
- " Match the amount that you spend each month on coffee, and give it to Edwards.
- " Consider giving the church a Birthday Present when Pentecost rolls around this spring.
- " Count the number of beds in your house, and give $20 for each one.
- " Increase your pledge.

This will turn into the same success that 2005 did, if we all work together!

Thanks also to Kaela Swarts for sharing her audition piece as a prelude for worship,
Sunday, January 29.

Note from Terry Schlabach

Thank you for the support on my trip to Equador, December 26-January 17th. The games, books, and puzzles were every appreciated. I divided them between two places: Miquel Leon which is an orphanage and hospice center run by Catholic nuns in Cuenca, Ecuador and Stephen Hawking, a community treatment center for children with disabilities. At Stephen Hawking, my students and I were able to train teachers and therapists to adapt toys and teaching materials for the handicapped.

River Cities Reader

Last year, the Trustees and Church Council gave the Membership Board permission to place an ad in the River Cities Reader. It is one way to reach out into the community and invite persons, who are unchurched or looking for a church, to Edwards. This ad is part of the God is Still Speaking campaign. And, it has proven to be a successful ad as it reaches out to young adults. Several visitors have indicated they came to Edwards because of this ad.

However, we need your help to keep the ad running. Due to budget constraints, we are unable to cover the entire cost of this ad for the entire year. Our ad is $120 per month. We invite you to make a donation in any amount to the RCR Fund to keep the ad going. This is a wonderful way to be part of our church's evangelism program and keep Edwards name in front of the Quad-City's communities. Thank you in advance for your participation and support.

Youth Mission Trip Fundraiser Dinner Theatre and Newcomer Inquiry Sessions

Dinner Theatre

The 2nd Annual Youth sponsored Dinner Theatre held on January 15 was a resounding success! From the youth who served the gathered community with skill, grace and good humor, to the performance of the NuRenaissance cast in their play Messages from the Heart, the response was enthusiastic and positive.

Special thank you's go out to:

Carol Stratton, dining room organizer extra-ordinaire, whose flair for creating a festive atmosphere is unequalled, and whose ability to direct the youth in the essentials of table service and hospitality are truly remarkable.

Tracy Miller and Sue Harrington, whose meal preparation efforts in the kitchen were an absolute godsend, and whose example to the youth were simply awe-inspiring.

Pat Baxter-Rebal, for generously providing those hundreds of delicious cookies we enjoyed with our ice cream.

All the Youth Mentors who inspired our young people through both Word and deed and who give so freely of their time in supporting the youth. This faith community we call Edwards which once again stepped forward to support for this summer's mission project.

All of the Youth for their willingness to work hard and for their good cheer when some tasks weren't so easy after all!

Marta, whose absence was certainly felt, but whose groundwork of inspiring the youth to do their best resulted in a fabulous evening of good food and great fellowship. Through her vision and commitment, our Youth are well served.

I felt privileged to be part of it all and end with this question, Are we ready to start dreaming and planning for The Third Annual... yet? Mila Smith

The Great Boundary Waters Adventure of 2006

Come join your friends from Edwards for a week in the Boundary Waters. No experience needed. Novice and first-time canoeists have every bit as much fun as those that have been there before. If you are interested, or just want to find out more, contact Dave or Sandy Reinders at DLReinders@mchsi.com or SKReinders@mchsi.com, or call us at 332-2637.

When? Leave the QC early Saturday, August 5, 2005, and return on Sunday, August 13, 2006.

Where? The Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness is located in the upper Northeast corner of Minnesota just below the Canadian border. It is a million acres of virgin forest with more than 10,000 lakes, . No speedboats, no cars, no roads, no electricity - just a canoe and what you can carry on your back. If you've never been, you owe it to yourself to try it at least once.

Caregivers News

As we discussed at our January meeting, the next meeting for Caregivers is scheduled for 7pm on February 21st (not the 28th) so we do not compete with the other church programming. Thanks to all!

Lyle Stratton, Caregiver Coordinator

Attention All Cooks!

It's time for a new Edwards Cookbook. While our green cookbook has certainly served us well, it's been 11 years since its publication. So, we're looking for cooks and contributors, tasters and testers, and a few stalwart folks willing to meet periodically for planning and production (in other words a committee to get the ball rolling!) If interested, contact Mila Smith, 391-5409 or 508-8981.

There is no cost for the evening, but a free-will offering will be taken to support the work of Churches United in the Quad Cities.
