From Our Pastor's Desk...

I have often thought that the church calendar needs an extra season. Currently we have six seasons in the church year - Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter and Pentecost - which lead us on a journey through Jesus' life and ministry year after year. But, especially at this time of year, I long for a season of Thanksgiving.

If Thanksgiving were to become a season of the church year, its color in the sanctuary could be gold (or maybe a rich pumpkin), and we could spend time focused on the power and importance of gratitude. Gratitude really means "to be in a state of grace", and to be grateful really means to be filled with grace. In the midst of difficult economic times, I think gratitude - for God's presence and power, for one another, for the ability to give and to receive, for this beautiful land we inhabit - may be one of the most important spiritual disciplines that we practice.

The list of things for which we are (and ought to be) thankful is long. Too much of the time we are either focused on getting the next thing done or we are complaining about the newest problem that has emerged in our lives or in our world. We need a season of Thanksgiving!

It could include several special days, I think. It might begin with All Saints Sunday (the first Sunday in November) when we join together in giving thanks for the lives of those in our faith community who have died in the last year. Next, it could include the celebration and dedication of our stewardship drive, when we focus on the gift of being able to give back just a little bit of what God has given to us. And then it might conclude with the celebration of Thanksgiving Sunday.

The old Christian practice of gratitude - deep, humble thanksgiving - is fast fading into a lost art. We live in a world where everything centers on what we humans can do, make, remake, demolish, learn, manipulate or organize. Gratitude focuses our attention beyond ourselves to something bigger. The practice of "giving thanks" invites us to acknowledge some of the deepest truths of life.

When we recognize that we are not "in control" of our lives, we are free to give thanks to God who has created us and creates us new each day. When we come to know that we do not live to ourselves, but instead within a web of caring and challenging relationships, we are moved to give thanks for all the people who have extended their hands in welcome, who have offered help in a time of need, who have lifted up a prayer of support or spoken a difficult word of disagreement with love.

When we come to understand that we cannot save ourselves from the sorrows, injustices, and realities of life, we are set free to welcome Jesus, who is the one who saves us even from ourselves. And we give thanks to God for this gift.

Giving thanks isn't just about being polite. It is about humbly living our lives in relationship to God and others, aware that we have been gifted (through no merit or fault on our part) with amazing blessings and unique challenges. As we seek to live in this way, truly we are filled with God's grace. This Thanksgiving "season" I pray that we may live our thanks both inside and outside the church. Both the church and the world will be better for it!

InterFaith Thanksgiving

For 65 years Edwards has been gathering with Temple Emanuel and the Unitarian Church to celebrate an Interfaith Thanksgiving. Long before it was popular to gather for interfaith dialogue (much less worship), our three congregations have been building a partnership. Minister after minister, rabbi after rabbi, generation after generation, this partnership has enabled bold stands for justice in the Quad Cities and has been a witness in the broader community for dialogue and the open, respectful sharing of beliefs. Join us as we celebrate this partnership, lifting our hearts and voices together in thanksgiving on Sunday, November 23rd at 7:00 pm. Edwards will be hosting our worship this year!

Contemporary Worship

Join us on November 16 at 5:30 pm for our monthly Contemporary Worship service in Baxter Fellowship Hall. The Friends in Faith Band will lead us in praise and thanksgiving, we will share communion together, and after worship we'll sit down to a potluck meal! Don't miss it (this is the best kept secret in the church!).

Flowers

Choose a Sunday to honor an event or someone special in your life with flowers for the sanctuary. Sign up in Kathy's office.

Generosity at Work

In times when prices are rising and income is uncertain, our natural response is to count every penny and cut every possible expense. From the amount of gas we use, to the food we buy, to heating our homes, we are all looking for ways to cut back and safeguard what we have. And, if the truth were told, a simpler life is not necessarily a bad thing!

There are certainly times in our lives when our scrimping needs to extend to our pledge at church. When we have lost a job, when our choice is between buying the prescription drugs we need or giving to the church at last year's level - those are times when we need to be realistic about what we are able to give.

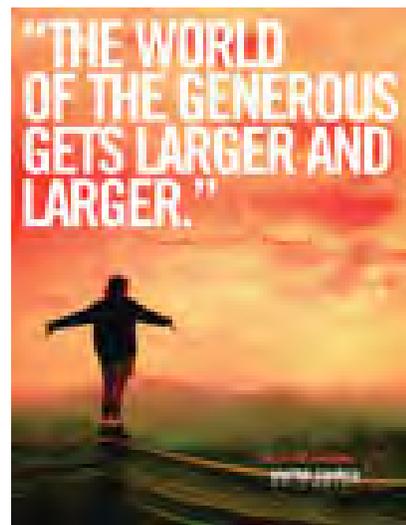

However! We all need to give! It is a basic human need - we NEED to give. When we give to the church, our lives get bigger, we get connected to God's ministry and mission for the world, and we grow as stewards of the gifts that have been given to us.

How much should we give? That depends. The Bible challenges and invites us to consider 10% of our income as a gift back to God. For most folks, that's more than is possible. Figure out what percentage of your income you already give, and then give yourself a challenge. Giving generously, giving a little more than we think we can, is a good spiritual discipline.

Your generous gifts enable vibrant ministry and mission here at Edwards. The Trustees and the Council will be looking carefully at the budget for 2009 - looking for all the ways to scrimp and save and safeguard. We promise to do our part. Will you do yours?

Stewardship Sunday

Stewardship Sunday will be November 9th in morning worship. That's the day that we present our pledges for the 2009 budget. The Alleluia Ringers will play bells, the Liturgical Dancers will share their gifts, and we will all reflect on how our individual gifts blend together to make a beautiful tapestry of love so that the world may know that Jesus Christ is Lord! Don't miss this special day.

Have You Considered?

Have you considered including Edwards Church in your will? Our Endowment supports important ministry in the name of our congregation. Whether it's disaster relief here at home or all around the world, spiritual growth opportunities for staff and members, or seeding new mission projects right here in the Quad Cities, the Endowment Fund makes a real difference in the world. You can also give to a scholarship fund to help Edwards youth attend college. Or give to a CareGiver fund that supports the CareGiving ministry of our congregation. Want more information? Give Katherine a call. You can make a difference in the church and in the world for a long, long time.

Time and Talent Pledges

Our mission is to Welcome all, Worship God, Share God's love and Serve each other and the world. Fulfilling this mission requires a commitment of time, talent and financial resources from each of us to God's service in the coming year. The stewardship of our time and talents is the wise and responsible use of the special gifts God has entrusted to each of us. It is believing that God has created each one of us with unique abilities and attributes -- including our personalities, interests, motivations, life experiences, talents and skills, hopes and dreams -- which make us who we are. We are one-of-a-kind creations of God with unique contributions to make in this world. Our lives have real meaning only when we use our gifts in accordance with God's will. As we grow in stewardship, we grow in our relationship with God. We grow in our ability to hear and accept God's call and to let our life be guided by God's will, not our own desires and impulses. Our lives are God's gift to us; how we live is our gift to God. Please give the work of our congregation your prayerful consideration and complete the time and talent pledge card to bring with you on Stewardship Sunday, Nov. 9th or mail it in with your financial pledge.

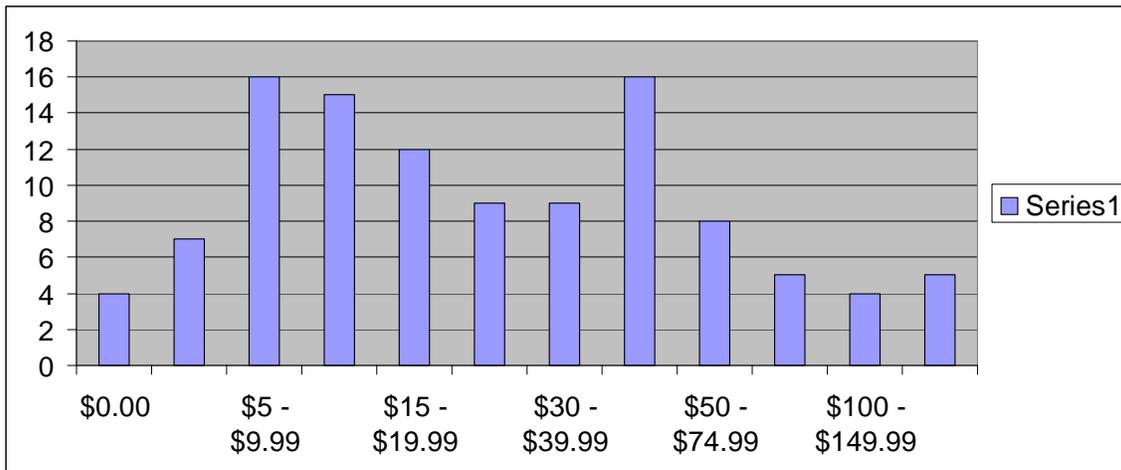

Did You Know?

Do you see things that need to be done around the church? Do you want to help out with the maintenance of our building now that our janitor's hours have had to be cut in half? There is a "job jar" of odd jobs that need doing in Kathy's office, or come on in and do whatever you see that needs to be done! Edwards belongs to all of us, and your help is deeply appreciated!

Edwards 2008 Weekly Giving Chart

In 2008, 15 people gave between $10 and $15 a week to support the church and its ministries. Sixteen people gave between $40 and $45 a week. Where are you on this chart? Where would you like to be? Every gift matters. When we all work together we CAN make a difference in the world!

Weekday Program Update

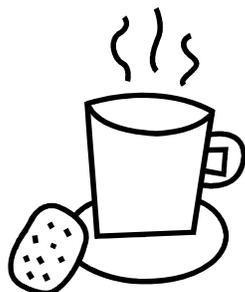

Have you wondered where all the wonderful supplies and resources from the weekday programs went? Some of what we had is still being used in the Christian Education program, but much went to provide materials to programs in the Davenport community. Katie Kyte, who works at the Friendly House, was able to use many of the books, puzzles, manipulatives, and art supplies for their day care/preschool program. Chris Fessler spread the word to the teachers she works with at Eisenhower Elementary and they came over and took supplies and materials they would have had to purchase out of their own pockets. Anne Swarts told her principal at Harrison School about the materials we had and he loaded up his car to supply a new kindergarten section at the school that had nothing to start the year with. The Weekday Programs at Edwards will go on touching the lives of children in our community for many years!

Fellowship Opportunities . . .

Chili, Cookies & Cocoa

The Board of Christian Education will sponsor a Cookie Walk on Sunday, Dec. 14th immediately following worship. Plates of 15 cookies (your choice!) can be purchased for $5. Our hope is to sell 100 plates - that means we need 1,500 cookies! Difficult, but not impossible! Please bring your cookies and recipe to church no later than Friday, Dec. 12th. If possible, drop a copy of your recipe off earlier in the week so we can include it in the recipe booklet we will distribute during the Cookie Walk. In addition to the cookie walk, we will enjoy a chili lunch, gather to sing Christmas carols, drink cocoa and welcome the coming of Christmas.

"The real Susan Orlean takes readers on a series of remarkable journeys in this uniquely witty, sophisticated, and far-flung travel book. In this irresistible collection of adventures far and near, Orlean conducts a tour of the world via its subcultures, from the heart of the African music scene in Paris to the World Taxidermy Championships in Springfield, IL - and even into her own apartment, where she imagines a very famous houseguest taking advantage of her hospitality." Thank You, Thank You, Thank You !!

Dear Edwards~ Congratulations on a week of great accomplishment. We hope you were able to see for yourselves that a volunteer labor force is the backbone of bringing adequate housing to the Gulf Coast. It is the faith-based groups like yourselves that continue the seemingly endless tasks still to be finished. As people of faith, you saw this mission and came to help. For that you have our gratitude. We trust you learned some new skills (dry walling, flooring?), met some new people and had a good time. We also hope you will carry your experiences with you as you continue to grow in the knowledge of what is required of us. We look forward to seeing you again! In gratitude,

Christmas Shopping

Watch for 'Fair Trade' SERRV craft order opportunities in November. SERRV International is an independent nonprofit alternative trade and development organization which promotes the social and economic progress of people in developing regions of the world by purchasing and marketing their crafts in a just and direct manner. What is fair trade? All of the items we carry are fairly traded, which means that we participate in a system that not only aims to pay fair wages, but also creates long-term, direct trading relationships based on dialogue, transparency, equity and respect. Fair trade is not about charity; it uses a fair system of exchange to empower producers to develop their own businesses and to foster sustainable development. We follow a set of internationally-accepted fair trade principles and practices that are designed to improve the livelihood of low-income people through alternative trade:

- ◆ Transparency and long-term relationships
- ◆ Commitment to fair pay for labor
- ◆ Employee involvement in decision making
- ◆ Prepayments available on request
- ◆ Capacity building for long-term impact
- ◆ Equal opportunity for women
- ◆ Concern for the environment
- ◆ Respect for cultural identity
- ◆ Reasonable working conditions
- ◆ No child exploitation

Going Green'

Have you noticed the "Retain the Rain" Barrel in the church entryway? As we strive to be better stewards of our limited natural resources, the Social Justice Board for the next few weeks will be welcoming donations for the purchase of three rain barrels for the church building. Quad City Rainfall Factoid: Average rainfall in the Quad City area is 39 inches per year. On a 1,000 square foot roof, one inch of rain produces over 600 gallons of water!

What is 'Social Justice'?

Eco-stewardship -- Healthcare - Housing - Equity - Reconciliation - Diversity - Peacemaking Social Justice issues are determined by "discerning the signs of the times". We listen to and observe the experiences of those closest to the problem. Together with those closest to the problem, we look at the context — what's the history and what are the root causes? Are there political and/or cultural forces at play? What action might successfully make this situation more just? We take the action and evaluate the results.

Please Join Us - Our Social Justice Board Meets the Second Tuesday of the Month at 6:30pm. And visit the Social Justice Webpage <http://www.edwards-ucc.org/justice.htm> For additional information please contact Shirley Johnson, 309-798-2360, uffda@netexpress.net

Fall Blood Drive

Don't forget... Edwards Blood Drive is December 5th

Want to Make the Planet a Better Place? From rallying against polluters to lobbying for better healthcare to fighting injustices around the world, you try to do the right thing. It's not easy to save the world. But there is an easy way you can have a positive impact. And that's by donating blood.

Every 2 Seconds Someone in the United States Needs Blood

That amounts to approximately 38,000 pints of blood needed every day in the U.S. We're talking a whole lot of blood. Blood is required in hospitals and emergency treatment facilities for patients with cancer and other diseases, for organ transplant recipients, and to help save the lives of accident victims. Burn victims, premature infants and people with blood disorders and anemia are also in need of blood and blood products.

Just One Pint Can Save Up to Three Lives

As much as 60% of the U.S. population is eligible to donate blood, but as little as 5% do. Despite advances in modern medicine, there is no substitute for human blood. Healthy donors are the only source. For the millions of people who receive blood each year, your donation can literally mean the difference between life and death.

Food Pantry Sunday

If you know of a group who would like our children to share their PowerPoint presentation, please contact Susan Chesley @359-0331.

The Pilgrimage

A UCC Spiritual Retreat Movement

Pilgrimage is a series of three retreats for discovering and deepening our sensitivity to God's presence in our lives, sharing our journey with others, and strengthening our discipleship in the world.

Retreat 1 (Nov. 21 - 22) helps you develop greater sensitivity to God's presence. It introduces some basic spiritual disciplines to nurture your relation to God.

Retreat 2 (Feb. 20 - 22) provides you with additional tools, and introduces the discipline of solitude, an 18 - 20 hour time of "silent withness." It also explores the concept of vocation in relation to our discipleship.

Retreat 3 (May 8 - 9) reflects on God's presence in the ordinary, and offers experiences with the arts as spiritual disciplines.

For more information, the flyer with registration form is available in the narthex.

World Community Day

Church Women United World Community Day will be held at 1:00 pm on Friday, November 7th at St. Mark Lutheran Church, 2363 West 3rd St., Davenport. Please consider coming to this event. The theme is "God's Wisdom Sets Us Free."

What Is It?

On the night of November 9, 1938, rampaging mobs throughout Germany and the newly acquired territories of Austria and Sudetenland freely attacked Jews in the street, in their homes, and at their places of work and worship. Over the next 48 hours at least 96 Jews were killed and hundreds more were injured, as many as 2,000 synagogues were burned, cemeteries and schools were vandalized, almost 7500 Jewish businesses were destroyed, and 30,000 Jews were arrested and sent to concentration camps. This pogrom has come to be called "Kristallnacht" or "Night of Broken Glass" - excerpt from 48 Hours of Kristallnacht by Mitchell Bard

Why Remember?

Beyond Kristallnacht: Lessons for Today is a series of community events being held from November 7-9 commemorating the 70th anniversary of Kristallnacht. These events will promote the lessons learned from Kristallnacht and the Holocaust, including the importance of tolerance, human rights, justice, diversity and the power of the human spirit. Don't miss this opportunity!
